

War Within

Any Given Sin

I see the vultures, they're circling closer
Lured by the stench of the mouths of dissent
(They're coming for me)

Hate, it fills the plate, I can't relate
I guess I'd rather be hungry
Pick up the pace now, I need to break ground
Before they find all my laundry

Talk may be cheap
But these words are not weak (words are not weak)
Rip the tape from my cheek
Cause I need to speak

I can feel it building up inside
Nothing ever seems to change my mind
I'm pushing through all the warnings
Ready to explode
Will nothing ever bring this to an end?
This is the war within

Pain, when I wake I feel the ache
But it's never concerning
I'll bring the fight all through the night
My brother I'll take the morning

Hate me, berate me, confess all my sins
Shame me, defame me, just one for the win
(They're coming for me)

Talk may be cheap
But these words are not weak (words are not weak)
Rip the tape from my cheek
Cause I need to speak

I can feel it building up inside
Nothing ever seems to change my mind
I'm pushing through all the warnings
Ready to explode
Will nothing ever bring this to an end?
This is the war within

Come on

Talk may be cheap
But these words are not weak (words are not weak)
Rip the tape from my cheek
Cause I need to speak

I can feel it building up inside
Nothing ever seems to change my mind
I'm pushing through all the warnings
Ready to explode
Will nothing ever bring this to an end?
This is the war within

I can feel it building up inside

Nothing ever seems to change my mind
I'm pushing through all the warnings
Ready to explode
Will nothing ever bring this to an end?
This is the war within
