

Avalanche

ANYA

I'm sorry I made us blow up
And I felt the ground shake instantly
I'm like a volcano going off
I'm not sure if you can take the heat

And now I see you burn from the words that I can't take back
I took the wrong turn and I can't go back
I shoulda never brought it up
I shoulda kept my mouth shut

This could be
The biggest mistake
That I'll ever make
But it's beyond me
It's out of my hands
I've started an avalanche
Out of my hands, avalanche
Out of my hands, like an

I already taste the regret
'Cause I see our future so vividly
And I'm sure that I heard the ice crack
Are you drifting away from me

And I hear the echo of words that I can't take back
I took the wrong turn and I can't go back
I shoulda never brought it up
I shoulda kept my mouth shut

This could be
The biggest mistake
That I'll ever make
But it's beyond me
It's out of my hands
I've started an avalanche
Out of my hands, avalanche
Out of my hands, like an

Are we ready 'cause it's tumbling down?
Are we steady, on solid ground?
Are we ready now?
Are we ready now?

This could be
The biggest mistake
That I'll ever make
But it's beyond me
It's out of my hands
I've started an avalanche
Out of my hands, avalanche
Out of my hands, like an

Avalanche
