

Silent Revenge

ANYA

I can't wait to run into you
While I'm walking with him
At all your favorite spots
I'll be showing him off
And yes, we'll surely attend
Bump into you again
And he'll be looking his best
I know that he'll impress

I'll display him like a trophy but he's more than that
Now I'm winning and with you I was the runner up

He's gonna love me better
Hold me like you never
Touch me like you never
So...

I hope, it hurts to see me happy
I hope, you resent that he got me
I hope it hurts
He's everything you weren't
I hope you feel the burn
This is my silent revenge

I still remember the pain
How I loved you in vain
He doesn't play like that
He keeps me safe like that
He doesn't kiss to make up
Spoils me just because
So now I'm snug in his arms
And we're just getting warm

I'll display him like a trophy but he's more than that
Now I'm winning and with you I was the runner up

He's gonna love me better
Hold me like you never
So...

I hope, it hurts to see me happy
I hope, you resent that he got me
I hope it hurts
He's everything you weren't
I hope you feel the burn
This is my silent revenge

When you see photos from our weekend trip
When we bump into each other
When your boy lets something slip
When your mom don't like the girl you bring home
When you realize you're gonna end up alone

He's gonna love me better

I hope, it hurts
I hope, you resent that he got me
I hope it hurts
I hope you feel the burn
Silent revenge

I hope it hurts
I hope you feel the burn
