

Slow Start

ANYA

You ask me if you care too much
Why I don't call you back
Why I don't wanna hang on the weekends
You question what I'm feeling
What is hidden in the cracks
If this is just game of pretend

I don't wanna break your heart
I don't wanna leave you scarred
You just caught me a little off guard

Not playing with your head
Not playing hard to get
Not trying to make you want me
It's not that
Maybe I just need some time
Not trying to make you fall
In love with me at all
It's not that I don't want you
Maybe I just need some time
Maybe I just need some time

You ask me if miss you
If I want you late at night
If you should come watch a movie
And hold me tight
You draw a bubble bath for me
And light the candle lights
You act so sweet it makes me wanna cry

I don't wanna break your heart
I don't wanna leave you scarred
You just caught me a little off guard

Not playing with your head
Not playing hard to get
Not trying to make you want me
It's not that
Maybe I just need some time
Not trying to make you fall
In love with me at all
It's not that I don't want you
Maybe I just need some time
Maybe I just need some time
