

Hear Me Now

Anyma

I hear you calling
In the future
I'm Eden's apple
But you can't reach me
An angel's often belongs to no one
A fascination born on your tongue

Can you hear me now, can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now, can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?

I hear you calling
In the future
I'm Eden's apple
But you can't reach me
An angel's often belongs to no one
A fascination born on your tongue

Can you hear me now, can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now, can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now, can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now, can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now? (Can you hear me now?)

Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?
Can you hear me now?

I hear you calling
In the future
I'm Eden's apple
But you can't reach me
An angel's often belongs to no one
A fascination born on your tongue
