

I have 45 second to show you,
How your heart was torn by
Disilusions, trapped by all the whims
That you created, shaking with a
Fear...

Give way to the sun, it will remind
You there are better days,
When you'll be smiling.stop this
Apathy before it swallows us!

Am I just the same?

We need empathy
(do you believe me)

We need empathy
(time to retrieve it)

We need empathy
(I really want it)

Give me anything
However small!

(whew!)
