Oh no no

I was deceived by your sweet whispers
Deceived by the ecstasy of your temptations
I crumble down, I break down
At the black touch hidden behind that smile

You wear a white mask and come by my side
You intoxicate me mindlessly
I crumble down, I break down
At the black eyes hidden behind that smile

I don't believe your smile
I don't believe you no more
I'm alone and lonely lonely lonely
I hope true love will come
I don't believe your smile
I don't believe you no more
I'm alone and lonely lonely lonely
I hope genuine love will come oh oh oh will come

I was deceived by your sweet whispers
Deceived by the ecstasy of your temptations
I crumble down, I break down
At the black touch hidden behind that smile

I don't believe your smile
I don't believe you no more
I'm alone and lonely lonely lonely
I hope genuine love will come oh oh oh will come

You're such a ridiculous monster
I can't trust your sweet words
I'm alone and alone - your words exhaust me
And I don't need to hear it - just skip now
I don't need any pretense no
There's no need to say it twice - go
I have no attachments to you
Don't hold out your hand and get out now uh

I'll get up now and brush myself off
And even if I'm dirty and I fall
It's really okay, I can smile, because I'm me
Oh oh oh no one no oh oh no one

I don't believe your smile
I don't believe you no more
I'm alone and lonely lonely lonely
I hope true love will come
I don't believe your smile
I don't believe you no more
I'm alone and lonely lonely lonely
I hope genuine love will come oh oh oh will come

You wear a white mask and come by my side
You intoxicate me mindlessly
I crumble down, I break down
At the black eyes hidden behind that smile
Oh no no
