Apartment 26

Like another icon in a repetitious era
Louder makes you change, what you thought you already had
Insert the compact, monetary instinct
Change your mind try to wear my head in your hand
Follow like a hero, like a leader, like a liar
Trendsetters looking for another trend to set
I see echos in the future, repeating, repeating

Fearing longing in utopia
How can it be shocking in a perfect world?
Fearing longing in utopia
Midnight escaping, only repeating

Take another minute now to look into the mirror
Singing makes you change, what you thought you already had Contrast the naked, momentary eye blink
Pass the fate, try to see the sin in your head
Change it like you meant it, like you like you like it like you love it
Tiny fingers beating for another lose full sweat
I see echoes in the future
Repeating, repeating, repeating, repeating

Fearing longing in utopia
How can it be shocking in a perfect world?
Fearing longing in utopia
Midnight escaping, only repeating

Like another icon in a repetitious era
Louder makes you change, what you thought you already had
Insert the compact, monetary instinct
Change your mind, try to wear my head in your grabbing hands

Fearing longing in utopia
How can it be shocking in a perfect world?
Fearing longing in utopia
Midnight escaping, only repeating
Fearing longing in utopia
How can it be shocking in a perfect world?
Fearing longing in utopia
Midnight escaping, only repeating
