

Kryptonite

Apashe

Said I'm not away and the Kryptonite in my head's breaking me d own

God is in my sight, I'm losing my fate, soon enough I'll be out

Said I'm not away and the Kryptonite in my head's breaking me d
own

God is in my sight, I'm losing my fate, soon enough I'll be out

own

God is in my sight, I'm losing my fate, soon enough I'll be out

Said I'm not away and the Kryptonite in my head's breaking me d
own

God is in my sight, I'm losing my fate, soon enough I'll be out

Said I'm not away and the Kryptonite in my head's breaking me d
own

God is in my sight, I'm losing my fate, soon enough I'll be out

(Break down)

(I'm not away I'm gonna break down)

It's dark inside, the wind is cold

And I've been dying just to catch your tears

Said I'm not away and the Kryptonite in my head's breaking me d
own

God is in my sight, I'm losing my fate, soon enough I'll be out

(Break down)

(I'm not away I'm gonna break down)

I've been dying just to catch your tears
