Run, Run Away

Apathy

Please don't take my love away,
Break my heart another day,
All you gonna say you'll just run, run away.
If you loved me yesterday,
I would blow the sun away,
So that you were sayin you'll run, run away.

(Man)I've completely lost my cool,
Blowin up your phone like a motherfuckin fool,
Sweatin little petty things, though they miniscule,
Arguing till 5am when you're just tryin to finish school.

I've completely lost my mind,
If i could travel back in time and tell myself to never mind,
And never send a message to ya, if i never did pursue ya,
Would i still be brokenhearted or be fine?

It's like I'm completely different, cuz at first i was consistent,
but you stayed so damn persistent, now you're actin kinda distant,
Wanna send a love letter, tell ya things are gonna get better,
I don't mean to put on pressure but,
What the Fuck's up?

(2x):
Please don't take my love away,
Break my heart another day,
All you gonna say you'll just run, run away.
If you loved me yesterday,
I would blow the sun away,
So that you were sayin you'll run, run away.

I used to try to holla at ya, now i only yell at ya,
then i feel like hell after (run away run away)
I used to try to holla at ya, now i only yell at ya,
Wanna cast a spell on ya (run away run away)

And your hairs, are everywhere,
In my bedroom, in my bathroom, on my vacuum, on the trashcan though i treat em like a C.S.I Miami, then i bag em, and remember when i grab em and you orgasm.(Lovin you)

I can't live without ya, I don't think that I know how to, like my soul's losing power, every second feel like hours, overload my modem's routa, like I'm strung out on that powda, out in public, yellin louda, I'm addicted, I'm a powder-head.

You could fly to Africa, Imma just come after ya,
I travel all over this world, to get my girl,
Now a tractor beam attracting ya, like Battlestar Galactica,
Ya tired of me askin ya,
But, What the Fuck's up?

(2x):
Please don't take my love away,
Break my heart another day,
All you gonna say you'll just run, run away.

If you loved me yesterday,
I would blow the sun away,
So that you were sayin you'll run, run away.
