Woo, yeah
Heaven, heaven,
You're my heaven
Again today, I close my eyes
I'm still in the times
When we dreamed together

(I still) live in that breath
I miss you as I fall asleep

How are you
My love, my lost piece
When I cry and get exhausted because I miss you
I wait for you
In your empty spot oh, no
Yeah

In the frozen time
I feel empty, my heart for you
We were so happy we could fly

Your smile that embraced me

(Are you still) smiling just like back then?
Even without me?

How are you
My love, my lost piece
When I cry and get exhausted because I miss you
I wait for you
In your empty spot oh, no

As I see my tears that still fall
I still regret that moment
You are fading away
I'm afraid I won't remember anymore

Hello my love, how have you been?
Will we ever meet again?
In the place we used to walk hand in hand
If I coincidentally see you oh, oh

I'm missing you, you know
I will run to you
To find the lost pieces
The dream-like love that we will start again
Will you hold it again?

Again tonight, my pray for you
I miss you, my love
