

Soul Worth Saving

Apollo LTD

You say that you're ok
But you've been holding on for dear life
So many years of rain
You can't remember what the sunshine feels like
Inside you're hurting you're worried you're not deserving of a lifeline
Oh, but the hands that hold the stars
Say you are

Don't you know
You've got a soul worth saving (oh, don't you know, don't you know)
Don't you know
You're still a heart worth chasin' (oh, don't you know)
There's love reaching deeper
Behind the hurt in your eyes
A diamond that can still shine
I hope someday you realize
What heaven already knows
You've got a soul worth saving (don't you know)
You're a soul worth saving

I know your past was dark
But there's a brighter future for you
Sometimes the breaking down
Is the beginning of a breakthrough, made new
So no more living like everything's unforgiven when that's not true
Oh, cause the hands that bear the scars
Say you are

Don't you know
You've got a soul worth saving (oh, don't you know, don't you know)
Don't you know
You're still a heart worth chasin' (oh, don't you know)
There's love reaching deeper
Behind the hurt in your eyes
A diamond that can still shine
I hope someday you realize
What heaven already knows
You've got a soul worth saving (don't you know)
You're a soul worth saving...

A worthy soul and treasured heart
Beloved more than all the stars
Made for heaven by design
Worth the rescue every time
A worthy soul and treasured heart
Beloved more than all the stars
Made for heaven by design
Worth the rescue every time

You've got a soul worth saving (oh, don't you know, don't you know)
Don't you know
You're still a heart worth chasin' (oh, don't you know)
There's love reaching deeper
Behind the hurt in your eyes
A diamond that can still shine
I hope someday you realize
What heaven already knows

You've got a soul worth saving (don't you know)
You're a soul worth saving...
