

Undeniably You

Apollo LTD

There were years it felt like no one saw me
Didn't know that You were watching every step
Thought if I needed help, no one was coming
But there was so much that I didn't understand

When I look back on the story
All the lows and all the highs
There was someone there beside me
Hidden right before my eyes
Always guiding and protecting
Making all the wrong things right
I couldn't see it then, but now I know it's true
That all along, it has been undeniably You, woah
Undeniably You, woah

I could hear it when the noise went quiet
Like a knocking on the door inside my heart
I could feel it when I started hiding
Like I wasn't all alone there after all

When I look back on the story
All the lows and all the highs
There was someone there beside me
Hidden right before my eyes
Always guiding and protecting
Making all the wrong things right
I couldn't see it then, but now I know it's true
That all along, it has been undeniably You, woah
Undeniably You, woah
Undeniably You, woah
Undeniably You, woah

Who else would take a sinner
And tell him he's a saint?
Who else would say I'm worth it
After all of my mistakes? (All of my mistakes)
Who else would bear my burden?
Who else would choose to die? (Choose to die)
The evidence is everywhere
My heart just can't deny

When I look back on the story
All the lows and all the highs
There was someone there beside me
Hidden right before my eyes
Always guiding and protecting
Making all the wrong things right
I couldn't see it then, but now I know it's true
That all along, it has been undeniably You, oh
Woah
Undeniably You, woah
