

Who We Are

Apollo LTD

Can you imagine it
All of us loving like Jesus did
Goodness and grace
Out here running the place
Blowing all of minds
The story is ours to write
Cause we're the salt and we're the light
We know the script
We heard it all from his lips
And now we're learning the lines

Maybe what the world needs
Is you and me
Being who we're meant to be

So we hope, we believe
And we go where he leads
The unmistakable light in a world so dark
It's who we are, it's who we are
Unafraid, unashamed
Letting love lead the way
The unmistakable beat of our rescued hearts
It's who we are, it's who we are

What if it's possible
Wouldn't that be beautiful
Making the switch
And trying to build us a bridge
Instead of putting up walls
I'll tell you it's not a dream
It can be our reality
Could kindness and patience
Be the song of the nations
And a hymn for us all

So we hope, we believe
And we go where he leads
The unmistakable light in a world so dark
It's who we are, it's who we are
Unafraid, unashamed
Letting love lead the way
The unmistakable beat of our rescued hearts
It's who we are, it's who we are

(It's who we are, it's who we are)

Maybe what the world needs
Is you and me
Being who we're meant to be

So we hope, we believe
And we go where he leads
It's who we are, it's who we are
Unafraid, unashamed
Letting love lead the way
The unmistakable beat of our rescued hearts

It's who we are, it's who we are

(It's who we are, it's who we are)
