

HEROIST

Apparat

Deep, deep down in the long roots of doubt
I stop, so I could sigh some more breathing out
Oh, but I could not breathe in
As this moment rose the dream is gone
Oh, steering these waters you show me dawn
That I adore
Made me want so much more

Long, long gone in this field of draught
I drop down to hear my mind breathing out
Oh, but I could not breathe in
As this, I'll source the pain is gone
Oh, clearing these waters you show me dawn
That I adore
Made me want so much more
