

Ring-A-Ding-Ding

Appleton

I can't believe the things I'm hearing
Are you leavin' me?
Stand up and be the man that you
That you claimed to be
I think it's great that you're left me
The last to know
And it will come back to hunt you
Cause you let me go

I've taken pleasure knowing that you
Never really knew me at all (it's your lost)
All the nights I've waited at home by the phone
And hoping it will ring ding ding ding a ding ding

Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Now I'm singing a different song
Waiting all night long
Coz' my love for you is gone

I think it's funny knowing that you
Never really knew me at all (it's your lost)
All the nights I've waited at home by the phone
And hoping it will ring ding ding ding a ding ding

Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Now I'm singing a different song
How could you do me wrong
Coz' my love for you is gone

Now I'm singing a different song
Waiting all night long
My love for you is gone
I'm singing a different song
Coz you did me wrong
My love for you is gone

I've taken pleasure knowing that you
Never really knew me at all (it's your lost)
All the nights I've waited at home by the phone
And hoping it will ring ding ding ding a ding ding

Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes
Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes

Ring a ding ding
The rhythm goes

I think it's great that you left me
The last to know
Cause you let me go
I think it's great that you left me
The last to know
Cause you let me go
I think it's great that you left me
The last to know
And it will come back to hunt you
Cause you let me go
I think it's great that you left me
The last to know
And it will come back to hunt you
