

Stop Wondering

April Smith and The Great Picture Show

Do you ever wonder if I'm dreaming of you
In the night at my window by the light of the moon?
If you ever wonder if I'm dreaming of you
Well, I'm not, so you can stop wondering

Do you ever wonder if I'm thinking of you
When I wake in the morning and the day is new?
If you ever wonder if I'm thinking of you
Well, I'm not, so you can stop wondering

I've got better things to do
Than sit around thinking all about you
And hanging on to every little word that you said

I've got plenty to keep me busy
Without you running round in my head

So if you ever wonder if I'm dreaming of you
In the night at my window by the light of the moon?
If you ever wonder if I'm dreaming of you
Bitch, please, I've got better things to do
