

Juvenile Delinquent

April Wine

Yeah, her mama says she's lazy
But her mama drives her crazy, every day and night
Yeah (yeah), she's a juvenile exciter
And her daddy was a writer, for the tv guide
And she's so bad now, she's so hot, and everyone knows it
Well we know, well we know it, yeah yeah

Yeah, he's a juvenile delinquent
Been in trouble 'bout as frequently, as he can be
Yeah, he said his father was a sailor
His mother was his tailor, till he turned 16
He's so bad now, he's so hot, and everyone knows it
He's so bad now, he's so hot, and everyone knows it
Well we know, well we know it, every day
They wanna put the dude away
Well it's worth it just to hear you say, there's something wrong

We're all juvenile delinquent
Juvenile delinquent, that's what we all are
We're all juvenile delinquent, we're
Juvenile delinquent, that's what we all are

And everybody knows, my baby's got new clothes
And she ain't changed, she ain't changed none
So go on and be the same, you know you can't escape
It's all the same, it's all the same
Well it's worth it just to hear you say, you wanna put us all away
Well you should have done it yesterday, cause it's too late, yeah

We're all juvenile delinquent
Juvenile delinquent, that's what we all are, yeah
We're all juvenile delinquent, you and me
Juvenile delinquent, that's what we all are
We're all juvenile delinquent, everybody
Juvenile delinquent, that's what we all are
