Aqualung

It has started, can't be stopped
Call the ferryman to cast me off
Send me, send me over the ocean
I'll find you

Not the radio, not today
There is nothing left
You can say
Just carry, carry me over the ocean to find you

Close your eyes baby
Close your eyes sunshine
Wait for one more sunrise
Then I'm home, I'm home

Feel the rumbling through the chair
Feel the future hanging in the air
Fly me, fly me over the ocean
I'll see you

And we're hurrying
And we wait, now we're tumbling
To the gate
Send me clearly over the ocean
To find you

Close your eyes

Close your eyes baby
Close your eyes sunshine
Just this one last sunrise
And I'm home, I'm home
