

Imperfect Cadence

Aqualung

Sweet soul
How we rock and we roll
And I'd give anything
To take it back and change everything

Sweet soul
The music swallows you whole
And you're the only one
Who really hears where it's coming from

Unfinished sentence
Still singing on a broken chord
Imperfect cadence
Still waiting on the right resolve

Old friend
There's a text that won't send
It says forgive me
I owe you every note that you've given me

Your sweet song
We softly singing along
I hear it everywhere
Just turn it up, it is everywhere

Unfinished sentence
Still singing on a broken chord
Imperfect cadence
Still waiting on the right resolve

Uncommon radiance
Still singing on a broken chord
Imperfect cadence

Still singing on a broken chord
Still waiting on the right resolve
