Just for a moment
Everything I treasured was gone
Just for a moment
I faced my life alone

Oh how I love you

Just for a moment
The world was full of pain
Just for a moment
My luck had finally run out

Oh how I love you

The same thing that blew us together Might blow us apart
So keep a piece of me precious
And close to your heart

Just for a moment
All of my nightmares came true
Just for a moment
My heart was broken in two

Oh how I need you Oh how I'd miss you Oh how I love you
