

Remember Us

Aqualung

Baby don't talk,
Don't say anything.
No need,
To say anything.

Cos lately when we talk,
We just spin it around,
So tonight, why don't we just set it down?
Let our shadows show us what to do.
What to be.
And in the hush,
Remember us.
Skin across my skin.
Do you feel it now?
Darlingm do you know me now?
In this remembering.

Remembering how we used to be.
Oh my - how we're supposed to be.
And when, as one, we come undone.
Then we find, as our souls unwind,
they intertwine.
And we find, that in the hush,
We remember us.
