He says bury me with legs crossed
Head back
Laughing like the fool I was Just like the fool I was Singing [?]

You can bury me with eyes open chest open
Falling with my heart worn through with loving you
Singing [?]

He fell
Terminally ill from the age of 5
Around the age of 5
Knew he would not survive
Singing [?]

He lived
Permanently eyeing
His dying
But still that flash between the eyes
Caught him by surprise...
Just tell me...

Oh no
Did you figure it out
I say
All along did you figure it out
I say
How the hell do you figure it out at all?
Dark times
Did you measure it out
I said
How much are you carrying out
I say
How the hell did you figure it out?
You say "alone"

He says, don't regret the things that you did
He said, it is the things you didn't do that really weigh on you
Singing [?]

You can
Bury me with eyes open chest open
Bursting with my heart worn through from loving you...
Just tell me...

Oh no
Did you figure it out
I say
All along did you figure it out
I say
How the hell do you figure it out at all?
Dark times
Did you measure it out
I said
How much are you carrying out
I say

How the hell did you figure it out?
You say "alone"
