

The Pain

Aquaria

I had a life
Long time ago
When all the threats were far ahead

An innocence
Took my heart as home
And now it flies through other lands

On seaport's dock
The evil birds
The only vision that I Have

They invite me to fly through dark skies they said:

There is no hope
There is no time
You lost the fluxus of your life

I am in peace
I have my life
I don't want to choose a side

Can't you see?
The ground you step's the ground I step?

We were the same
long time ago
The Beginning and the End

But you forgot
the voice inside
Here's the smile that I pretend

Bad end is near
Long time Ago
You didn't listen all i've said

You shed your fate
In sands of fear and despair

There is no hope
There is no time
You lost the fluxus of your life

I am in peace
I have my life
I don't want to chose a side

Can't you see?
The ground you step's the ground I step?

Dead seeds may grow
From all these lands
They turned my hope from blood to sand

And now I go
To end this show

To shout "the words they understand"
