

The Revolution

Aquaria

We are the soldiers of the war of the universe we serve the Madeleine's will and until the end we' ll serve!

The message through the stars
is like music for our ears!

It's so hard to fight against
An enemy without eyes.

So march for your death...

Do, do, do the revolution!
Do, do the revolution day!
Do, do, do the revolution!
Do, do the revolution day!

The other side is strong and it takes many souls
They spread the evil word of pain
We love "yes", they love "no"!

We seek the truth on a ground of lies

And the blood will dry (the souls will rise) and the skulls will cry (the saddest eyes)
and the heroes pray for a new dawn
Them the gates will block (no way to go) them the clocks will stop (no time to come) and the evil words will fall down

An enemy without eyes.

Do, do, do the revolution!
Do, do the revolution day!
Do, do, do the revolution!
Do, do the revolution day!

We're waiting for the new day to rise on Earth
