

Deep emotions fill us all
Prisoners of lies
Mankind now lives kingdom's fall
All we must to do is to be free and fly
Higher , so high we'll go
Our transcendence of mind
Faster, so fast we'll go
And now our soul must shine
Reality's been cruel
But we'll fight for our way home
Never ending strength to change the course
And carry on... all in light!
So destiny was calling me
To rejudge my life
What I believed was lost in clouds
I face now my night
In my only prison
Wondering the reason why
This winter's so dark?
Now I know the hard way
But I'd live it till my last day
To bring back the light
Shining my heart!
(Will shine so bright)
Fly in the sky!
(Spread wings and fly)
My soul will shine, now's time!
(now comes the time)
Reality's been cruel
But we'll fight for our way home
Never ending strength to change the course
And carry on... all in light!
