

Once upon a time on a land full of mistakes
The people on this land would be brave, but failed on their fates.

Bad thoughts and hunger for blood, run through these veins, bringing the chaos
Releasing the fire everyday
Their gods in hell, underlay
Their hate grows...

So, a woman appears!
She used the magic to link men and dry tears!

Travelling through minds, the words walking on our minds
To bring love and set us free!
Set water on fire and stop the desires!
We are men, not some beasts!

Finding the king of the world!
take one word to save the world
And this word means...

All those who faced the night
in this dark tale,
Found their own way to survive
To surpass the chaos

Longing for freedom you ride
seeking the truth, hidden from your site
Soon you'll walk by my side
Follow the voice from inside your heart and...

So, a hero was found!
He brought the demons away back to the ground!

Travelling through times, the words walking on our minds
To bring love and set us free!

Why won't you sense it, it's into your world
It's a game we still play!

I am the king of the world!
take one word to save the world
And this word means...
It's so hard to say..
Make this globe a better place... with LOVE
