

Don't ever tell you what i feel
'cause im not really sure myself
And you can say that that's okay
I can tell it's really not

And when you drop me off this time imll wonder weather i was cl ear
Did i just confuse you more
Or maybe, it really doesnt't matter

What's the difference
How it's all gonna end someday
Youll play an encore
Watch the crowd fade away

It doesnt't matter if you played all the songs to perfection
'cause it's just an indie pop song and it always ends the same

I could run away and cross the road to get a job
And never leave
Trade my guitar in for a horse
Maybe drive a taxi

And you could build your pyramid
And cross the sea
Find a roof
Find what you need get a perfect haircut
Start another rock band

What's the difference
How it's all gonna end someday
Youll play an encore
Watch the crowd fade away

It doesnt't matter if you played all the songs to perfection
'cause it's just an indie pop song and it always ends the same

Don't ever tell you what i feel
'cause im not really sure myself
And you can say that that's okay
I can tell it's really not
