

Just Asking

Aquilo

I'm asking you to stay
Between all these whispers that won't go away
It's been a while since you and I woke up
We drift in and out, we're up and down on luck

I'll look the other way
I won't be tempted by people that lead me astray
Cos it's been a while since you and I woke up
Do I settle down and shut you out for good?

I'm asking you to stay, stay please babe
I'm just asking you to stay

I'm asking you to wait
Between all the secrets that won't go away
Cos it's been a while since you and I woke up
Do we fall in love and fuck it up for good?

I'm asking you to stay
Stay please babe
I'm just asking you to stay
Just asking

Stay please babe
Just asking
