Missing The Mark

Aquilo

You came close
Biting your tongue
So don't look back
'Cause silence is dumb

Just like a lighter
You need a spark
Sorry you're stuck here
Here in the dark

Comfort in giving in
Always forgiving him
For missing the mark

Don't act tough
Say what you need to
'Cause once upon time you were fine
It was you and the evening

Just like a lighter
You need a spark
Sorry you're stuck here
Here in the dark

Comfort in giving in
Always forgiving him
For missing the mark

Just like a lighter
You need a spark
Sorry you're stuck here
Here in the dark

Comfort in giving in
Always forgiving him
For missing the mark
