

Silhouette

Aquilo

Stood at the cold face, stood with our backs to the sun
I can't remember being nothing but fearless and young
We've become echoes, but echoes that fade away
We fall into the dark as we dive under the wave (I heard you say)

Devil's on your shoulder
Strangers in your head
As if you don't remember
As if you can't forget
It's only been a moment
It's only been a lifetime
But tonight you're a stranger
Some silhouette

Let's go out in flames so everyone knows who we are Cuz these city walls never knew that we'd make it this far
We've become echoes, but echoes are fading away
So let's dance like two shadows burning out the glory day

Devil's on your shoulder
Strangers in your head
As if you don't remember
As if you can't forget
It's only been a moment
It's only been a lifetime
But tonight you're a stranger
Some silhouette

And just hold me (4x)

Devil's on your shoulder
Strangers in your head
As if you don't remember
As if you can't forget
It's only been a moment
It's only been a lifetime
But tonight you're a stranger
Some silhouette

It's only been a moment
It's only been a lifetime
But tonight you're a stranger
Some silhouette

But tonight you're a stranger
Some silhouette
