

Fine Tuning

Arab Strap

If you take a sock off, then I'll take a sock off. We'll do one for one 'til we're both bare. And with our tongues click-click ing, the big bright clock stops ticking as we make a right mess of your hair. Then we'll make plans for dinner, though my gut' s got no thinner since I've been letting you feed it. And you'r e useless at drinking, but these days I've been thinking I doubt we're going to need it. And if you stop bleeding and we took to breeding, you know our son would be a hit. And as for our da ughter, all suitors she'd slaughter with her brains and her bea uty and her wit. After the flirting and after the swooning, wit h nerves put to bed it's all just fine tuning. And we'll never get bored with our routine and pattern when I'm your house-husb and and you are my slattern. But one day I might cut loose and I just won't be much use and so you'll push me away - so do you r best, and make me pay.
