Invisible

Aranda

I know you're sufferin', why can't you talk to me?
You know I don't understand
'Cause in your darkness I can see the light

I'll stay, I'll keep holdin' on
Don't run away

And I'm waiting till you let me in
But I'm breaking into pieces, again
Oh, is this ever gonna change?
When did you just send me that way?
I'm still invisible

Won't let you waste away in this lonely place
I'll never let ya down
'Cause this is up to you, you've gotta find the truth inside

I'll stay, I'll keep holdin' on
Don't run away

And I'm waiting till you let me in
But I'm breaking into pieces, again
Oh, is this ever gonna change?
When did you just send me that way?
I'm still invisible

Don't let your life slip away
I can't take on all of your pain
And I'm so close to suffocatin'
Why can't I just make you see me?

And I'm waiting till you let me in
But I'm breaking, oh-oh

And I'm waiting till you let me in
But I'm breaking into pieces, again
Oh, is this ever gonna change?
When did you just send me that way?
I'm still invisible

Oh, I'm still invisible
I'm still invisible
