

The Day After

Aranda

I woke up alone
Yesterday in front of me
We played a game
And now I'm runnin' from a memory
As we began to lose control
You said you loved me for my soul
Now the story must be told

I never meant to hurt you
But I lied
I lied
Cuz this is

The day after oh
And I'm never calling you again
The day after oh no
And we're never gonna be friends
The day after
I said I'm never going back again
I said I'm never calling you again

II want to forget
That this is happening
I walk to the door
And the telephone rings
But it's not just another call
And the worst thing of it all
I'm gonna have to let you fall

I know I said I loved you
But I lied to get my way
I didn't mean for this to happen yesterday
I want to say I'm sorry but goodbye is all I find

The day after oh
And I'm never calling you again
The day after no
And we're never gonna be friends
The day after
And I'm never going back again
No I'm never going back

It isn't easy but I can't pretend
If I don't feel the same
I know I said I loved you
Don't know why
I lied
Cuz this is

The day after oh
And I'm never calling you again
The day after oh no
The day after no
And I'm never going back again
I said I'm never going never going back
Ooh I said I'm never going back

The day after oh
The day after
Oh the day after the day after
The day after yeah
Ooh I said I'm never going back again
I said I'm never going back again

The day after
