

I'm lonely
I don't wanna drink again
Rather lay myself with my old friend
Oh Beryl, how does it end?
Now that I'm alone again

I'm lonely
I still think of her sometimes
Funny how she went inside my head
Well it was four years ago
Shouldn't I have moved on?

Now that I have lost my senses
I'm trying to hold on
I wanna learn on how to love again
Every now and then I try
Though I can't seem to understand

So if you have the time
Could you teach me again?

Ooh hope you have a lovely Sunday noon
Hope I could say hi and see you soon
Oh Tavoryn I'm really missing you
Didn't mean to hurt you
Which I did
I understand now

With all the mess I made
I don't belong to someone like you

Now that I have lost my senses
I'm trying to hold on
I wanna learn on how to love again
Every distant memories
I fully understand

So if you have the time
For my final goodbye

Ooh hope you have a lovely Sunday noon
Hope I could say hi and see you soon
Oh Tavoryn I'm really missing you
Didn't mean to hurt you
Which I did
I understand now

With all the mess I made
I don't belong to someone like you

Thank you for the two years spent with you
Now I know the things I shouldn't do
Oh Tavoryn I'm grateful over you
Didn't mean to hurt you
Which I did
I'm really sorry

With all the mess I made
I don't deserve the blessing you gave

With all the mess I made
I don't belong to someone like you
