

the bad guy

Arash Buana

I said I didn't want
To be the bad guy
So please stop
Pushing it on me
Every time you said u cried for me
How many times
I did the same
So please, stop pushing me
To be that guy

I swear I'm always trying to be
The nice guy
To be fair
I'm doing pretty well
60 texts to scream
The hurt u felt
Why even bother
Here to stay
Cause I'm here just Trying to be nice

Every morning
Every night
Always begging
For a fight
If u cared on how I've been
It wouldn't matter who should win
Oh the ego is just buried on her flesh
My darling, leaving is for the best

I said I didn't want to be
The bad guy
To be fair, I'm doing very well
Tell me how things should've been
So I'll just follow where u put me in How low I have become Thought love would be more fun

Cause every morning every night
Always begging for a fight
Well if u cared on how I've been
It wouldn't matter who should win
Oh the ego is just buried on her flesh
My darling, leaving is for the best

The ego's buried on her flesh
Darling, leaving is for the best
Leaving is for the best
