Back then, while I was simply chasing after my dreams
I ran recklessly with my gaze fixed on this day
Believing I could go on forever that I could go anywhere

Pulling out the hidden courage from inside of my heart now, for this moment
The distant landscape that I made my vow to is still the same as ever
It's spread out in front of me here

Countless times I shed tears and then pretended I hadn't
I think I was aiming for this sky all along Something that no one can reach, but certain that if it was with my hands, I could grab it
Continuing forever, anywhere towards the dream that I'd always been drawing

Ah with power welling up inside, my heart felt like it'd overcome anything
I'll go to the next stage of this competition that seems so far away
Passing my limits, I'll give a shout of happiness
The scene that I'd been chasing after back then it's here now

If everyone is going to chase after my back
Then I'll keep walking on this road to a future I've never seen before
Believing in myself

Pride that doesn't even know the meaning of standing still It'll arouse my excited spirit
My beating heart doesn't lie steady as it marks the passing time
Forever forever the path taken by others has been left for us

A message that will be sent into eternity
Connecting happiness to a shining future
The proof that we've always kept running will be there

Existing as we are experiencing emotions as they are Release the feelings you've been carrying right here and now
The moment of silence fills everyone to the point they're moved

Overcoming even myself to fly away

Ah with power welling up inside and a heart that will overcome anything
I'll go to the next stage of this competition that seems so far away
Passing my limits, I'll give a shout of happiness
The scene that I'd been chasing after back then it's here now
