No matter what, I can't understand it it looks like a melon, but tastes like a lemon
No matter what, I can't adapt to it this era that look so sweet is actually sour

Reference books have become the main course of dinner I wonder what it is th at I'm learning
Why is that eating something in a hurry gives you indigestion?
It's not that I hated it without even tasting it it was an instinctive rejec tion going to!

An allergy throw away all those recipes for things like common sense and mor als
In other words, being selfish is wonderful way to express myself

Feeling cramped in a freedom given by someone else it's a satisfying allergy
I wonder why people push themselves with those "rental" abilities it's an en ergy to be proud of

No matter what, I can't understand it we're normal it's a difficult theory
No matter what, I can't fit in this society that looks so sweet is such a bu rden

There are no rails that lead a person's life For the ones who were pretending to believe there was this is a shout out to you Things like navigation have no meaning at all this is an airship that's impo ssible to take control of

An allergy with a steady pace let it be show off your biceps As long as you don't pretend to be something you're not, you'll be invincibl e express yourself

An allergy throw away all those recipes for things like common sense and mor
als
In other words, being selfish is wonderful way to express myself

(No matter what, I can't understand it... like I thought, they're a little d ifferent from me...)
(No matter what, I can't fit in... the things they treasure are completely d ifferent from what I do...)
(No matter what, I can't understand it... like I thought, they're a little d ifferent from me...)
(No matter what, I can't fit in... the things they're searching for are comp letely different from me too...)
