"This is a last hope"

For my life for your life seize this moment
Born in my world take your time
In my life I'll keep moving forward this feeling was born right here

It never disappears it's there deep in your heart like a quiet rain falling
That's what brought me this far
And it's how I'll keep going forward from now on, right?

So time to go the answer is to bet everything on "now"
One way, no doubt hope will be born in that moment

While my feelings overflow, I'll scream it out with my heart it's a moment o f my life
I won't let it end trusting that we can believe
Nobody's life stays the same so never end
Even if it's a dim glimmer of light, don't look away from it and seize this moment

Because you have a heart inside that burns so passionately
Being hit by an endless rain, you'll break apart the fate that had been deci ded for you
You're always like that, right?

Don't give it up! go! because people are definitely a lot stronger Believe in yourself than you imagined them to be

So we've just gotta keep living, right? it's a moment of my life
Even when ridiculous things and other people laugh at you we can believe
No matter what so never end you who are so important to me
I can't lose you so I'll hold on to the beat of your heart which proves you' re certainly alive

On the other side of the glass is my world I reach out my hand toward it oh.

While my feelings overflow, I'll scream it out with my heart it's a moment o f my life
I won't let it end trusting that we can believe
Nobody's life stays the same so never end
Even if it's a dim glimmer of light, don't look away from it and seize this moment
