Tell all the world
Tell all the world

If it's the movie I saw yesterday, by drinking a magic medicine, everything in the story was ok oh
Reality isn't that easy-going it's no good I can't take it anymore I'll love you as I please Tell all the world!

Tell all the world at any time, let's always say "thank you"
That's right it's fine if it's in your own original words
Dye all the white canvases of the world with your colors see?
Say "thank you very, very much" throughout the world it waits for you

Even the old guys who were glaring at each other, once you look closely, the y have their good points too
Looking for affection it's right over there
Hey, before you get angry, forget about it
Tomorrow is there just for you it keeps waiting yeah!

Tell all the world wherever you are, let's always say "thank you"
That's right, you're needed let's sing it now
Color all the white canvases of the world with your songs see?
Say "thank you very, very much" far away into the sky oh

All the voices of the friends of the world can be heard now, you're an impor tant "you"

Stand up, you got all the freedom, yeah
Say what? yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Stand up, you got all the freedom, yeah
Say what? yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Tell all the world wherever you are Tell all the world let's always say "thank you"
That's right it's fine if it's in your own original words
Dye all the white canvases of the world with your colors see?
Say "thank you very, very much" throughout the world

Tell all the world at any time, let's always say "thank you"
Say "thank you very, very much" far away into the sky
