Kiss crazy I don't know don't stop baby don't stop
Miss crazy be prepared what's up baby it won't end

Love that you only chase after is painful you can't stop it now
The closer I get to you, the further it feels like we are separated
(It always seems like loving you has no dream of a future)

On nights when I can't sleep I have dreams that don't end

Every time the dawn comes, only you disappear
I continued standing still right here

No one can rival you I want you, but I can't reach you
It's like this elusive love sneers at me
The two of us will become the sun and moon
Is my impatient heart being tested?
Even the meaning of this strategy, I don't get it anymore
But still, it doesn't matter I just want to be with you

Kiss crazy I don't know don't stop baby don't stop
Miss crazy be prepared what's up baby it won't end

The distance at which we pass each other is irritating if I stretch out my hand, it's like I could reach you
If there's a meaning to this, please tell me to the tightening pain in my heart
(It always seems like a lie that loving you has a dream for a future)

Too preoccupied with only thinking about how this will end
We should stop all this worrying already
Because we can start over from here

You're gorgeous I can't look away from you who are scattering
Like flower petals, love is also beautiful
Will it only quickly flutter down?
I want to find out your shining secret
I can't stay as friends anymore
I want to stay here and hold you I just want to be with you

Kiss crazy I don't know miss crazy be prepared
What's up baby...

On nights when I can't sleep I have dreams that don't end
Every time the dawn comes, only you disappear

No one can rival you I want you, but I can't reach you
It's like this elusive love sneers at me
The two of us will become the sun and moon
Is my impatient heart being tested?
Even the meaning of this strategy, I don't get it anymore
But still, it doesn't matter I just... (want to be with you)
