Cry for you

Even if I talk of many loves, they can't overcome this meeting
Searching for romeo, baby a Juliet whose afraid of getting hurt

The truth is I'm a liar desire lives in this body entwined in a key
The two of us go around and around one another I'll never miss you

Even diamonds break in reality

And I'll cry for you shot through the heart
I'll die for you for true love
Should I tell everything to only you?
Now I'll cry for you wishing for happiness
I'll die for you until I've burned out
With my whole body, I'll catch you

Do you still have that pinky ring? even if we're separated, time connects us
Now, we're far, far away my voice can't reach you yeah

There's a digital sound so close

And I'll cry for you shot through the heart
I'll die for you for true love
Should I tell everything to only you?
Now I'll cry for you wishing for happiness
I'll die for you until I've burned out
With my whole body, I'll catch you

Cry for you only for you cry for you

Die for you in the middle of breath, what are you thinking about?

The time I have left slowly fades away in a blaze
I was dozing off, but suddenly I attack
Yeah cry cry cry cry cry for you

You are the one for me

And I'll cry for you shot through the heart
I'll die for you for true love
Should I tell everything to only you?
Now I'll cry for you wishing for happiness
I'll die for you until I've burned out
With my whole body, I'll catch you

Cry for you
