Sending out our dreams on a line drive
They say a life full of ups and downs isn't beneficial to you, and you know that
So don't try to selfishly choose your future
Even if you fall down and feel pain, you've gotta reach out your hand

I was spacing out when someone asked me in a hushed voice
"I wonder if it's really alright to trust those psychological tests in magaz ines..."
It said I was a smart person with good insight and that my future was bright there were a lot of nice things written there Ah... try suggest to your heart to deliberately bite the dangerous apple

Sending out our dreams on a line drive
After all, they're like shooting stars that are out of control our lives
If we connect to tomorrow by giving in Then we won't be able to protect the things important to us, right?

With the boots that I was used to wearing, I stepped on who I was yesterday I've gotta light a fuse so simple, yet hard to do Over there is a key a key to fortune somehow, I'd like to share the good luc k
Ah... cast a spell on your tears stomp on the accelerator of the fully tuned and upgraded pumpkin

Sending out our dreams on a line drive
They say a life full of ups and downs isn't beneficial to you, and you know
that
So don't try to choose your "tomorrow" by calculations or things like that If you fall down and feel pain, afterwards reach out your hand

(Go! everybody, ready go! uh yo!)
With an extremely low trajectory, it was nearly crawling along the ground su ch a dangerous ball...
Ignoring balance, ignoring gravity you'll only be able to follow it on a ris ing path yeah!

Ah... try suggest to your heart to deliberately bite the dangerous apple

Sending out our dreams on a line drive
After all, they're like shooting stars that are out of control our lives
If we connect to tomorrow by giving in Then we still won't be able to protect the things important to us, right?

Da dan dan dan da I'm gonna knock on the sky They say passionate feelings aren't beneficial to you, and you know that
So don't try to selfishly choose your future
Even if you fall down and feel pain, you've gotta reach out your hand
