Who am I to be dejected at the brilliance of the city?
On days that I can't meet you, my only friend is sighs

I know I want to call you, but I don't
I feel irritated by the window tonight
I'm going to confess to you that's okay, right?

If I'm beside you
Even the days that got worse and worse, forcing me into silence
It seems like I could easily laugh together with you

You know, love is a deep adventure
Before you realize it, you're completely hooked
An adventure the two of us can wander around on

The wonderful future seems like it will be a tough one

It's not like I didn't sleep well
My depressed expression is because I feel like I'm skating on thin ice

In the left side of my chest
If I don't have a little bit of fear
Then I can't grow courage

You know, love is a deep adventure
The ordeals that come one after another
A painfully exciting adventure
There's not a single story that's the same

You know, love is a deep adventure
The meeting is just the prologue
Even every part of an ordinary day is an adventure
Around the time I know everything about you, I can't let us be separated any more

You know, love is a deep adventure
Before you realize it, you're completely hooked
An adventure the two of us can wander around on
The wonderful future seems like it will be a tough one

You know, love is a deep adventure
The ordeals that come one after another
A painfully exciting adventure
There's not a single story that's the same
