Everybody hands up! coming up now
I'm an authentic disco star

I can't stand to be around snobbish people the noise from the dance floor throbs through my body
I didn't ask for it, but my heart's shy I want to be hit with an endless kick, kick

Little lost lambs you should come over here~gently, baby)
Deep in the night, a venus is smiling at me

Everybody hands up! coming up now
I'm an intimidating disco star
A cheerful weekend in a crazy world
This feeling isn't deja vu

Boogie woogie freakier and freakier funky girl
(Boogie woogie one more time!)

Boogie woogie if you shake it look falling love

I want to be hit hard with a rough beat expectations steadily grow I take my spot
This isn't a game I want to be struck by your momentary kisses over and over again

A wolf whose bared his fangs has entered the dance floor (gently, baby)
That fickle jealousy adds a spice to the night

Everybody, stand up! still on the way
I'm an authentic disco star
Looking at you, girlfriend it's just a miracle
If you weren't here, this wouldn't be heaven

Baby, baby freakier and freakier funky girl
(Baby, baby one more time!)
Baby, baby if you shake it look falling love
Da da da darling blinded by those shinny eyes
Let's hold each other til morning angel!
