It always feels like there's a complicated distance here
Like you are hoping to confess if we meet
The paper got torn from erasing too many times
On the bottom page where you hid your feelings

Don't be silent open your heart
I'm begging you so show me the secret of your trick

That definitely isn't an illusion
Your eyes are just disoriented
If I could cure that
I'd want to give you power by covering your eyes with my hands
Even though it would be good if my wish could also reach you
To this day, you still haven't noticed
I've only been worried about that

Right now in front of me, you hummed a melody to yourself
You may not have realized it
But I feel it
It's different from before if I can get closer, we'll walk along naturally
Only us can see it
A secret bridge has been made

From a summer's night until morning
We looked down at the flowing stars

That definitely isn't an illusion
The things only you know
Share them with me
I don't need anything just gazing at you is enough
The things inside of me that are becoming my stability
Are steadily becoming real
In order to understand, I'll grab them in my hands

That definitely isn't an illusion
The things only you know

Share them with me
I don't need anything just gazing at you is enough
The things inside of me that are becoming my stability
Are steadily becoming real
In order to understand, I'll grab them in my hands
