Swaying to and fro with you you who are in full bloom, swaying to and fro

The reflection of the moon on the water's surface it faintly colors this cit y with its light
A fleeting flower song can be heard coming from somewhere Pushing my way through the lies everywhere, going to you who are waiting for me
Let's jump out onto our big stage

A flower has blossomed it won't lose to wind or rain
This world is gorgeous more beautiful than anything else

A soul burning with passion (living the only life I have to the fullest)
I'll offer it to you (it was a once-of-a-lifetime chance that we met)

Tonight, a flower turns crimson as it blooms in this transient world
This proud japonesque
A lullaby on the wind woven by the four season
Swaying to and fro together with you

This world, entranced by elegance, takes a look back through time
An ancient melody can be heard coming from somewhere
If you're lured by the appreciation of the beauty of nature, then let's danc e in the moonlight
Even as it fades

When your heart dances, fall into a light sleep
The scenery is so vivid more wonderful than anything else

Swaying as the river does (memories from thousands of years ago)
I'm playing a song for you (forever like a dream)

Tonight, the moonlight will watch over us our love will be eternal
Wishing strongly for this japonesque
Shooting stars began to fall through the night sky
Swaying to and fro together with you

The flowers, the birds, the wind, the moon all sing of how short this life i s
The sun will rise again in the eastern sky we're going to our next stage the curtain is rising now

Sparks scatter let's dance all night (baby) shake your body (baby)
More (more) keep going (keep going) let's finish this off with a bang

Tonight, a flower turns crimson as it blooms in this transient world
This proud japonesque
A lullaby on the wind woven by the four season
Swaying to and fro together with you

Tonight, the moonlight will watch over us our love will be eternal
Wishing strongly for this japonesque
Shooting stars began to fall through the night sky
Swaying to and fro together with you
