Rock! rock! rock! rock!

Rock! rock! rock! rock!

This is an era where you can somehow get your hands on whatever you want
And everything depends on what you want to do
So, the power of imagination the ability to take action what's important is your own heart
Beckoning you in the darkness is a huge market with those powers
The power of imagination and decisiveness what's important is your own heart

Ah, I'm wanting love, ah, I'm searching for love

Now, I'm running to your side
Stubbornly continuing to a new tomorrow hey!

No no I want to abduct you no no I'm right here
No no I'm gazing at you, so believe me
No no I want to steal you no no I'm close to you
No no let's keep singing to the era of ours which is coming

Rock! rock!

This is an era where you can easily throw things away
And everything depends on what we want to do
So, the power of expression the force of your will what's important is your own heart
Basking in the light, releasing our rocket with that power
The power of expression and decisiveness what's important is your own heart

Ah, I'm wanting dreams, ah, I'm chasing after those dreams

No, my feelings are changing into unwavering emotions
And rising to a wonderful tomorrow hey!

No no I want to kiss you no no I'm right here
No no I won't let go, so believe me
No no I'm really into you no no look up at the sky
No no let's start walking to the era of ours which is coming

Walking, walking to our era
Walking, walking together with you yeah

No no I want to kiss you no no I'm right here
No no I won't let go, so believe me
No no I'm really into you no no look up at the sky
No no start walking together with me

No no I want to abduct you no no I'm right here
No no because you're staring at me believe me
No no I want to steal you no no I'm close to you
No no let's keep singing to the era of ours which is coming

Rock! rock! rock! rock!
