"Where do you think you're going?" I heard this unhappy line from next to me
I stepped on the gas and pretended I couldn't hear it

On the highway after midnight
Listening to the wind's serenade
Your enticing long hair waving in the wind is like a spell cast by the night

I want you, baby
I want to scandalously steal you away masquerade
Until the morning comes, I won't let anyone find out that I've taken you no,
no
I need you, baby
Everybody has nights when they're selfish I'm sorry
I can't become a reasonable guy
Just for today, put on some glass slippers
Let's dance you're still a young lady

"The ocean looks so beautiful" are you still annoyed with me?
Don't look at me like that I feel like I'll fall in love with you all over a gain

As they sway like a pendulum
The waves play a prelude
If time would stop and you were in my arms, the night could enchant me with this last dance

I miss you, baby
Please show me the heart you've hidden behind that mask masquerade

This is a world just for us I won't let anyone get in the way no, no
I love you, baby
I'll show you the continuation of this fairytale so please forgive me
Very soon, the dawn will come to the azure sky
Leave the goodbyes for in our dreams
Let's dance you're like a mermaid

You don't need to be sad anymore come by my side
It's only one short night, but shall we dance?
I'll gently lock away your pretty tears inside
This kiss is a spell cast by the night

I want you, baby
I want to scandalously steal you away masquerade
Until the morning comes, I won't let anyone find out that I've taken you no,
no
I need you, baby
Everybody has nights when they're selfish I'm sorry
I can't become a reasonable guy
Just for today, put on some glass slippers
Let's dance you're still a young lady
