Monster

Around the time it passes midnight oh no! a cruel monster
From the moonlight in the dead of the night oh no! it's revived

I'm awoken by your scream
Into this evening's darkness, a monster luring you in

Creating a frozen night we are behind you (who?)
By the time you notice, you're already caught by the monster there's no escape

(Just one) your hand (two) a loving hand (three)
I want to hold it as I sleep (four & five)
Because you are here, I was born until the dawn breaks, stay close to me

Even if all of my memories disappear if I'm reborn, I'll search for you again
It's not about outward appearances embrace what's in my heart
This monster that found you on a full moon night

Lost in a room with no doors (no way) someone is watching (who?)
Footsteps gradually grow closer (run away) but you can't move

(Just one) this thrill (two) can't be stopped (three)
I want to make you afraid (four & five)
But the truth is that I really do love you stay next to me until the morning can be seen

Let's shout this ten thousand year love even if I'm reborn, this monster will search for you again

Around the time it passes midnight...
From the moonlight in the dead of the night...

I'm awoken by your tears
Into this evening's darkness, I'll take you

Even if all of my memories disappear if I'm reborn, I'll search for you again
It's not about outward appearances embrace what's in my heart
This monster that found you on a full moon night
